What to bring to the Cabins

Bedding
1. Pillows
2. Sleeping Bags (or)
Sheets, Blankets, Comforters

Food Stuff
Whatever you choose to eat! Maybe you will get lucky and catch some of our trout. Rumor has it that they are really good smoked. There is a small Store on the other side of the lake, also the Restaurant is very good.

(Note: For safety reasons, cooking and open flames are not permitted inside the cabins. And, there is no plumbing in the cabins. Potable water is available alongside each cabin. Sanitary facilities are located close to cabins.)

Camp Stove and/or gas BBQ (charcoal BBQ provided, bring lots of charcoal and charcoal lighter fluid and matches)
Eating utensils (plates, silverware, napkins, etc)
Coffee (we forgot it once and the opener twice)
Ice Chest (ice is available on both sides of the lake)
Water for drinking
Table cloth (for provided picnic table)
Plastic Pan (for dish washing, etc.)

Misc
2' X 4' Folding Table or Card table for inside the cabin.
Folding Chairs
Playing cards or other games
Check the weather before you come and bring appropriate clothing (4600 feet elevation.)
Fishing gear (Panther Martin gold size 2, gold or silver Kastmasters)
Binoculars (lots of birds and other wildlife)
Camera
